of the Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund and the Public Employees' Retirement System of New Jersey and amending N.J.S.18A:66-53.2 and P.L.1966, c.217.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. N.J.S.18A:66-53.2 is amended to read as follows:

18A:66-53.2. [If] a. Except as provided in subsection b. of this section, if a former member of the retirement system who has been granted a retirement allowance for any cause other than disability, becomes employed again in a position which makes him eligible to be a member of the retirement system, his retirement allowance and the right to any death benefit as a result of his former membership, shall be canceled until he again retires.

Such person shall be reenrolled in the retirement system and shall contribute thereto at a rate based on his age at the time of reenrollment. Such person shall be treated as an active member for determining disability or death benefits while in service and no benefits pursuant to an optional selection with respect to his former membership shall be paid if his death shall occur during the period of such reenrollment.

Upon subsequent retirement of such member, his former retirement allowance shall be reinstated together with any optional selection, based on his former membership. In addition, he shall receive an additional retirement allowance based on his subsequent service as a member computed in accordance with applicable provisions of this article; provided, however, that his total retirement allowance upon such subsequent retirement shall not be a greater proportion of his final compensation than the proportion to which he would have been entitled had he remained in service during the period of his prior retirement. Any death benefit to which such member shall be eligible shall be based on his latest retirement, but shall not be less than the death benefit that was applicable to his former retirement.

b. The cancellation, reenrollment, and additional retirement allowance provisions of subsection a. of this section shall not apply to a former member of the retirement system who ¹is a certificated superintendent or a certificated administrator and who¹, ¹[120 days]¹ after having been granted a retirement allowance, becomes employed by ¹[an employer] the State Department of Education in a position of critical need as determined by the State Commissioner of Education, or becomes employed by a board of education¹ as a certificated superintendent or a certificated administrator on a contractual basis for a term of not more than one year¹; except that the cancellation, reenrollment, and additional retirement allowance provisions shall apply if the former member becomes employed within 120 days of retirement with the employer from which the member retired¹. Nothing herein shall preclude a former member so reemployed ¹with a board of education¹ from ¹[entering into successive contracts for a term of not more than one year] renewing a contract for one additional year, provided that the total period of employment with any individual board of education does not exceed a two-year period¹.

any cause other than disability, becomes employed again in a position which makes him eligible to be a member of the retirement system, his retirement allowance and the right to any death benefit as a result of his former membership, shall be canceled until he again retires.

Such person shall be re-enrolled in the retirement system and shall contribute thereto at a rate based on his age at the time of re-enrollment. Such person shall be treated as an active member for determining disability or death benefits while in service and no benefits pursuant to an optional selection with respect to his former membership shall be paid if his death shall occur during the period of such re-enrollment.

Upon subsequent retirement of such member, his former retirement allowance shall be reinstated together with any optional selection, based on his former membership. In addition, he shall receive an additional retirement allowance based on his subsequent service as a member computed in accordance with applicable provisions of chapter 84 of the laws of 1954; provided, however, that his total retirement allowance upon such subsequent retirement shall not be a greater proportion of his final compensation than the proportion to which he would have been entitled had he remained in service during the period of his prior retirement. Any death benefit to which such member shall be eligible shall be based on his latest retirement, but shall not be less than the death benefit that was applicable to his former retirement.

b. The cancellation, re-enrollment, and additional retirement allowance provisions of subsection a. of this section shall not apply to a former member of the retirement system who, after having been granted a retirement allowance, becomes employed again by ¹:(1)¹ an employer in a position for which the compensation does not exceed \$10,000 per year¹; or (2) if the compensation exceeds \$10,000 per year, by an employer that is a public institution of higher education as defined in N.J.S.18A:62-1 in a teaching staff position¹. The Director of the Division of Pensions and Benefits may from time to time adjust ¹[this] the¹ amount in paragraph (1) of this subsection¹. This adjustment shall be $\frac{3}{5}$ of the percentage of change in the index, as defined in section 1 of P.L.1958, c.143 (C.43:3B-1), over a period of time as determined by the director.

c. The cancellation, reenrollment, and additional retirement allowance provisions of subsection a. and the compensation limitations of subsection b. of this section shall not apply to a former member of the retirement system who, '[120 days]' after having been granted a retirement allowance, becomes employed by the State Department of Education in a position of critical need as determined by the State Commissioner of Education¹, or becomes employed by a board of education in a position of critical need as determined by the superintendent of the district¹ on a contractual basis for a term of not more than one year¹; except that the cancellation, reenrollment, and additional retirement allowance provisions and the compensation limitations shall apply if the former member becomes employed within 120 days of retirement in a position with the employer from which the member retired¹. Nothing herein shall preclude a former member so reemployed 'by a board of education' from '[entering into successive contracts for a term of not more than one year] renewing a contract for one additional year, provided that the total period of employment with any individual board of education does not exceed a two-year period¹.
